AND THEN A SCHOLAR SAID, SPEAK OF TALKING. AND HE ANSWERED SAYING:

YOU TALK WHEN YOU CEASE TO BE AT PEACE WITH YOUR THOUGHTS;

AND WHEN YOU CAN NO LONGER DWELL IN THE SOLITUDE OF YOUR HEART YOU LIVE IN YOUR LIPS, AND SOUND IS A DIVERSION AND A PASTIME.

AND IN MUCH OF YOUR TALKING, THINKING IS HALF MURDERED.

FOR THOUGHT IS A BIRD OF SPACE, THAT IN A CAGE OF WORDS MAY INDEED UNFOLD ITS WINGS BUT CANNOT FLY.

THERE ARE THOSE AMONG YOU WHO SEEK THE TALKATIVE THROUGH FEAR OF BEING ALONE.

THE SILENCE OF ALONENESS REVEALS TO THEIR EYES THEIR NAKED SELVES AND THEY WOULD ESCAPE.

AND THERE ARE THOSE WHO TALK, AND WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE AND FORETHOUGHT REVEAL A TRUTH WHICH THEY THEMSELVES DO NOT UNDERSTAND.

AND THERE ARE THOSE WHO HAVE THE TRUTH WITHIN THEM, BUT THEY TELL IT NOT IN WORDS.

-KAHLIL GIBRAN

Open first period for seniors, movies in the auditorium, and a senior lounge were introduced in an attempt to reduce the size of study halls and offer more freedom to the students.

ACTIVITIES

Teen Council gained recognition this year mainly through its successful presentation of "Mountain," the New York group headlining New Canaan's first rock concert. The Mountain concert, however, is only the top of the iceberg of efforts made by Teen Council in collaboration with the adults in the community to raise money and to generate interest in a teen center for New Canaan.

Student Council was greatly changed this year, not only in the goals of its various projects, but in physical size as well. By popular vote, Council decreased from sixty representatives to twenty. Paul Hartley served as president, Kathy Rosenau as vice-president, and Linda Simmons as secretary-treasurer.

Unsuccessful in establishing a smoking lounge during the fall, the Council provided the impetus for the abolishment of school dress restrictions.

During the second half of the year Council spent its time formulating measures which would give the student body more academic and social freedom within the school. These measures are still being worked out, with the hope that they will go into effect next fall.

A program of seminars designed to add relevance and excitement to the regular curriculum, was the most important project undertaken by this year's Honor Society. The program offered students the opportunity to hear about various subjects from people knowledgeable in such areas as politics, marriage, drugs, and aviation.

The Honor Society completed the curriculum evaluation started by last year's group, and tutored students in such fields as chemistry, math, Latin, and history.

President Paul Gilman presided at the two inductions: one in the fall for seniors, one in the spring for Juniors.

GERMAN CLUB

GERMAN CLUB
Vera Fickey, Debbie Weber, Janet Forsythe, Mrs. Ollendorf, Cindy Wright, Linda Deasey, Linda Wing, Jeff Barber, Rick Faust, Joe Mount.

Sprachen Sie Deutsch? Haben si ein zimmer mit privat Bad? This Year's German Club was advised by Frau Ollendorf, with Fraulein Linda Deasey as secretary. The members held meetings at each other's houses every first and third week of the month. In addition, the club has attended lectures on German history, festivals, and a German play in New York City. Interested in gut Deutsche food? The club is famous for its good food and music.

GREEK CLUB

Doug Baldwin, Becky Dragiff, Mr. St. Clair, Greg Dubs.

After eight years of NCHS classics fiends sleeping through morning Greek Club, Mr. St. Clair decided to wake up his Greek crowd and convened Tuesday afternoons at four thirty. Instead of the traditional coffee cakes and morning coffee, he had Substitute-Teacher-Student Mrs. Munro serve very un-Greek like tea and biscuits to go with warmed over philosophy.

Mr. St. Clair was successful; the Greek Club woke up to the fact that he really hasn't been translating Greek these past years. Apparently he's been making up obscure thoughts to blend with his discussions; he knows no Greek at all. The club responded with vigor and spent the entire year teaching Mr. St. Clair the principals of the Greek language.

Next year's Greek Club will meet at 7:30 A.M. for anyone interested in lukewarm coffee and philosophies of life.

SPANISH CLUB

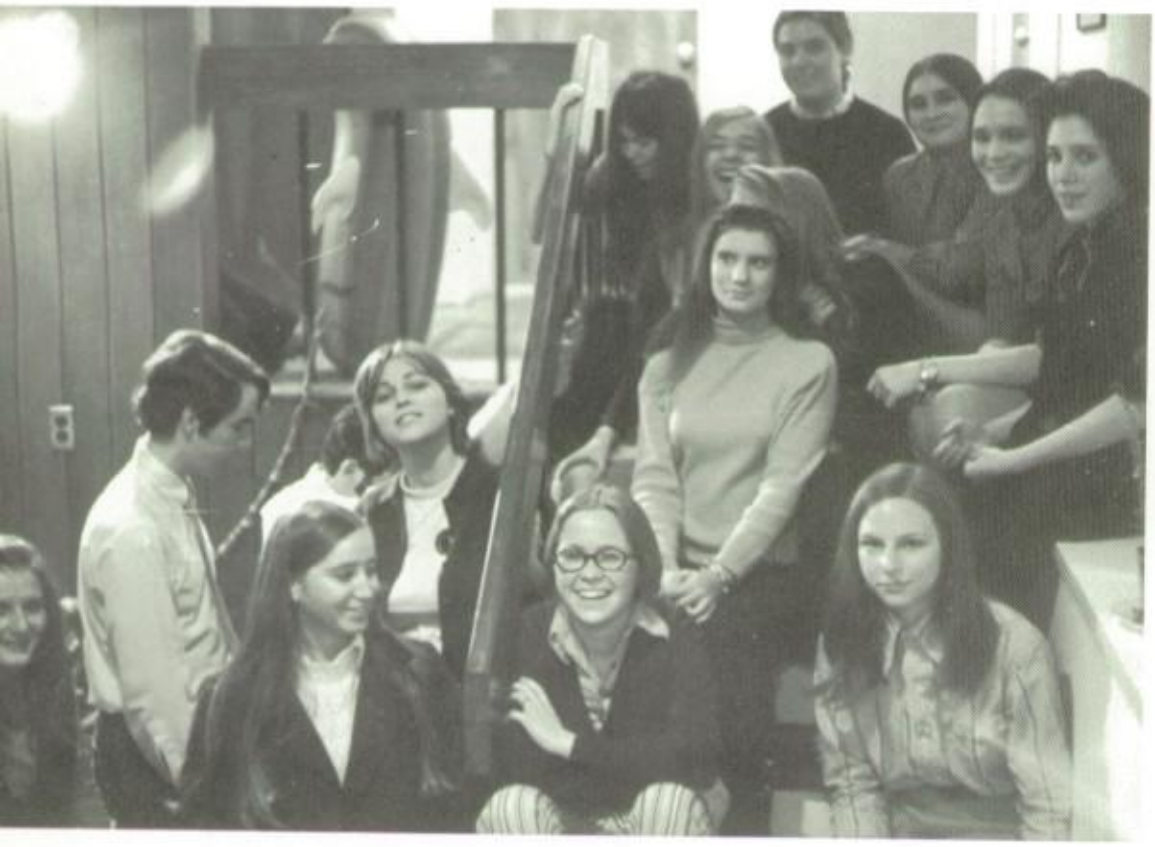
SPANISH CLUB

This year's Spanish Club, headed by Mr. Rodriguez and assisted by Mrs. Vela, had a successful year; membership and participation was high and many projects were planned and carried through. Most important, however, the club has demonstrated that the Spanish language and the cultures associated with it definitely have a place in our current education. Among the Spanish Club's activities were a ski trip, a skating party, and an outing to New York City to view a play and eat dinner at a Spanish restaurant. The Spanish club again elected to present the Spanish award for the best graduating Spanish student at the close of school.



FRENCH CLUB

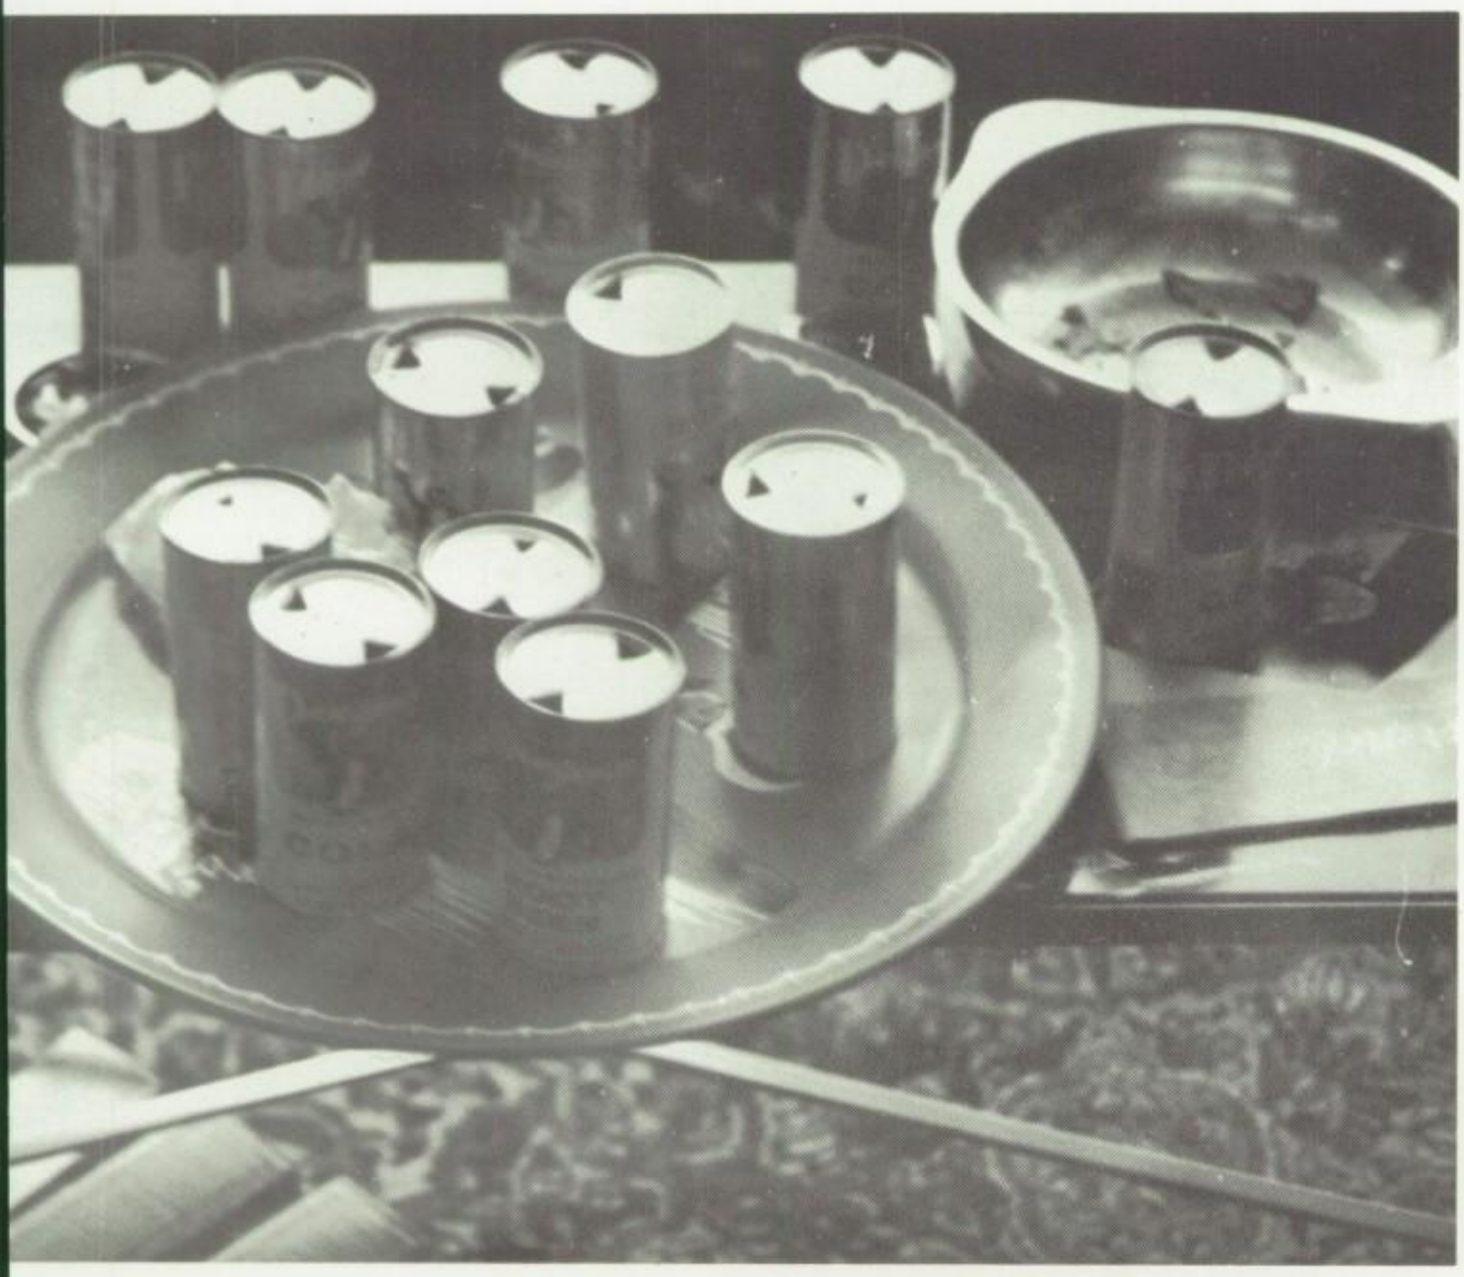
FRENCH CLUB

Same old "Cercle Francais"? Pas de tout — a change this year! The club widened its circle to include members from St. Luke's, resulting in a formidable increase in N.C.H.S. attendance. Every other week a member volunteered his house for a meeting place. Between broken couches and torn pillows, members managed to have a successful progressive dinner, arranged a ski weekend at Stratton, and attended Les Femmes Savantes in the city. In between the fun they even spoke a little French.



RUSSIAN CLUB

For its first year the Russian Club was quite successful in arousing interest in a language that has been dormant at NCHS for a number of years. To familiarize themselves with the language the club used books and tapes, listened to speakers, and took field trips. Members are hopeful that they may succeed in reinstating Russian at NCHS. Looking into the future, the club hopes to increase its membership with more tovarichi.

OUTDOOR CLUB

The Outdoor Club was formed this year because many students wanted to become more familiar with their natural environment. Throughout the year they took field trips to look, listen, collect, and generally survey the ecological aspects of nature, trips which included the Lapham Estate and the New Canaan Sanctuary.

Interested in conservation, they surveyed water systems, Land Trusts, and open land in campaigning for a cleaner and healthier New Canaan.

One of the highlights of the year's activities was an "African Safari." Movies and slides which depicted scenes in Africa were shown.

THE AUDIO-VISUAL SQUAD

Under the supervision of Mr. Richard Porter, the audio-visual squad learned to operate all the audio-visual equipment. This year, with the addition of a video-tape machine and a television camera equipped with a zoom lens, the crew was able to video-tape basketball games and play tryouts. Being the center of lights and sound activities, the skilled members successfully made possible daily announcements, drama productions, and movies.

ASTRONOMY CLUB

The new Astronomy Club legitimized a popular radical theory: star gazing on spring nights is much more fun than homework. Of course a matching number of guys and gals improve upon the gazing.

The club topics contained many ideas illustrating the varied knowledge of man: how modern astronomy theory applies to the principles of astrology, the role of science in society, Einstein's theory of relativity, and man's new awareness of the moon. Sponsor Mr. Darling and President Eric Laity anticipate next season with renewed vigor, as a result of this year's stimulating sessions.

DEBATE TEAM

"Preponderance of force," "irrelevant!" "self-determination," "credibility," "irrelevant!" — this is just a sampling of the cryptic jargon so astutely manipulated by this year's masters of erudite equivocation. Under the mentorship of Coach James Rand and Captain Doug Baldwin, the N.C.H.S. debate team matched its forensic finesse with that of neighboring schools, arguing the pros and cons of United States unilateral military intervention. Does the value of such oratorical enmity seem dubious to you? Consider the following: "Can a defendable definition of unilateral intervention logically exclude threat of force?" Only one of N.C.H.S.'s rhetorical wizards could answer that one!

FUTURE NURSES' CLUB

FUTURE NURSES' CLUB
Shawn Flavin, Alice Cook, Caroline Lynch, Sandy MacKlem, Janet Lycan.

Meeting once a month, members of the Future Nurses' Club have been able to see just what is involved in a nursing career by taking field trips to nearby hospitals and schools of nursing. Some of the group's activities have included attending an open house at the Stamford Hospital and visiting the School of Nursing at Bridgeport University. Two of the members, Shawn Flavin and Terry Martin, represent the high school on the Junior Board of the Stamford Rehabilitation Center. Led by officers Shawn Flavin, President; Janet Lycan, Vice-President; and Mrs. Alice-Ruth Baxter, the club combines an enjoyable learning experience with the opportunity to serve others.

Under the direction of Mrs. Sally Harlow, the Future Teachers' Club explored different techniques in education. As in the past the members visited different colleges to observe various types of administrations. This year's trip was to Connecticut College, where the club's members toured the campus, discovering how a small college is run. In addition, the club collected Christmas gifts for underprivileged children in Stamford.

CENTER SCHOOL PROJECT

CE

ION SOFTNESS,

D OF TIME.

ENTER SCHOOL, AGE 11

About seventy students from the high school were involved in the Center School project this year. They worked in the classrooms as teachers' aides, as supervisors on the playgrounds, or as assistants with small groups after school. Schoolyard play and projects such as mural painting, were easier to run with the help of the high school students. In addition, the teachers were able to give more individual attention to the students needing it. Also, the participants seemed to stimulate more enthusiasm in work and to spark the creativity of the Center School students. Secrets, funny questions, and friendships have made the Center School project successful, and may serve as a precedent for future projects of this kind.

LIBRARY CLUB

Under the pressure of over-crowded conditions in the library, this service club, headed by Nancy Wilson and Cheryl Tobey, not only performed the normal tasks of librarians — checking books in and out and shelving them — but also managed to sponsor the second annual N.C.H.S. Book Fair.

The library club also participated in the town-wide conservation campaign in the spring, and held a very interesting and successful National Library Week in early April. Besides taking several trips in the New Canaan area, the club joined Nutmeg 020, the state-wide organization for student librarians.

After an exciting year, the library club hopes to send representatives to the third annual New England Student Leadership Conference this summer, so that the club will be as successful in the future as it has been in the past.

Bantering in Portuguese, Spanish, or accented English, the A.F.S. Club successfully sponsored its annual international weekend in late January. At various times, meetings featured flamenco dancing, a Yugoslav girl's piano solo, a Venezualan's chatting about Greenwich Village, a Japanese joking about motorcycles, and Rae McDonald of New Zealand and Klaus Neuman from Paraguay relating experiences about their homeland. Completing their year with the traditional fund-raising April workday, many weary people happily contributed to the success of the exchange program.

CHESS TEAM

The members of the Chess Team were chosen from the YMCA Chess Club that met from 7-9 on Monday nights. Regulars on the team were Doug Baldwin, Chris Conley, John Drake, Andy Duus, Doug Macklem and Mahendra, with Gary Johnson, Bill Lywn, Dave Mead and Jim Renfrew ready to fill in as substitutes. The team beat Darien, Greenwich, Norwalk and Stamford Catholic, but lost to Brian McMahon. It was a good season with excitement at every match.

DRAMA CLUB

The Drama Club produced two major plays this season: Ten Little Indians in the fall and The Diary of Anne Frank in the spring. Besides these, the club instituted a lab theater as a training ground for both inexperienced and experienced actors, which utilized an intimate "theater-in-the-round" style and presented The Skin of Our Teeth, Devil and Daniel Webster, and The Ugly Duckling. Tickets for these lab productions were exchanged only for canned food, which was sent all over the world by the Salvation Army.

The club also ran a theater workshop which consisted of nonverbal plays. In addition to acting, students learned about stage productions and set designs.

Regular monthly field trips were taken to New York City to see various plays such as Mame, Summertree, Our Town, and Grand Kabuki.

The Slide Rule Club met Friday mornings in Mr. Twardy's Baton Rouge summer home, "The Hermitage" (Room 13). Students discussed the theory of relativity and wave motion on their scientific adventures through "perverbial high tides and conflagration." Their trip was in a perpetual motion jet which flew at a speed of 229 cps./m./newton^2. The students returned in a 1914 Pierce-Arrow, just in time for Period 1.

The Drama Club brought to the stage this year an authentic mystery-thriller. Agatha Christie's Ten Little Indians portrays the harrowing adventures of ten strangers on an otherwise deserted island estate.

The seven men and three women soon discover that one of them is a compulsive murderer. As suspicion moves from one to another, their number dwindles away. The climax of the play comes when the murderer is "unmasked" and his motive is revealed, but true to the melodrama the hero and heroine seal the ending with a warm embrace and a kiss.

MARCHING BAND

On and off the field the "Marching Rams" proved that they deserve the enthusiastic support of New Canaan's music fans. Performing a new halftime program for each home game, the Band delighted fans throughout the football season. The Marching Rams were honored by friends and parents with a banquet on March 18. Band certificates were awarded to members, and seniors received engraved key rings. Moving inside after football season, the Concert Band rehearsed for their annual Spring Concert on April 15. In May the group traveled to a statewide band festival and received considerable recognition. The Band's final appearance was in the traditional Memorial Day parade.

The Stage Band was reorganized this year after a six-year lapse. The Band rehearsed on a semi-regular basis and drew from its substantial library of popular arrangements.

Learning difficult classical music, the Orchestra faced new musical challenges this year with intense rehearsals. Early in the year the Orchestra performed for a full house made up of students and teachers. Later the group entertained elementary school audiences. In April the Orchestra performed their Spring Concert. Many ensemble groups grew out of orchestra members' interest in music.

COURANT

This year's edition of Courant (or is it Kourant?) consistenly offered responsible news reporting. Under the editorship of Doug Baldwin issues appeared on a monthly basis. Although Courant depended upon many filler items and had available space for layout experimentation, serious student opinion on vital local and national issues predominated. This year's staff produced an accurate and thoughtful record of events at N.C.H.S. and since many of the editors were juniors the chances for continued success are bright.

Planning for Perannos 1970 began before the last edition was even published. The staff of editors attended a yearbook seminar at Columbia University in October and then immediately began work for this year's edition. Meetings were held every Tuesday afternoon under the fearless leadership of Kathy Byrne. Deadlines were met under the strain of time and the staff worked hard to capture all aspects of New Canaan High School and to publish the yearbook in June.

SPECTATOR

Each year Spectator is the result of a dozen or so nightly meetings of the Literary Board to choose worthy student poetry and prose. This year Spectator has been hampered by a decrease in submissions over preceding years and is forced to print the work of a small number of students. However, the Board is still determined to make Spectator more than ever the publication for all student literature in future years.

LAB PRODUCTIONS

THE UGLY DUCKLING

LAB THEATER

In its second year the Lab Theater produced three plays ranging from fantasy to serious drama. "Lab's" purpose is to provide more students, especially underclassmen, with the opportunity to participate in a dramatic offering. In addition the "arena staging" allows a more intimate relationship between the audience and the performers.

The Ugly Duckling is the story of two royal families employing trickery to promote a beneficial union through marriage. The audience is brought into a fantasy kingdom where men are real to the imagination alone. In the company of kings and courtiers the spectators witness the provident courtship and marriage of the young prince and princess.

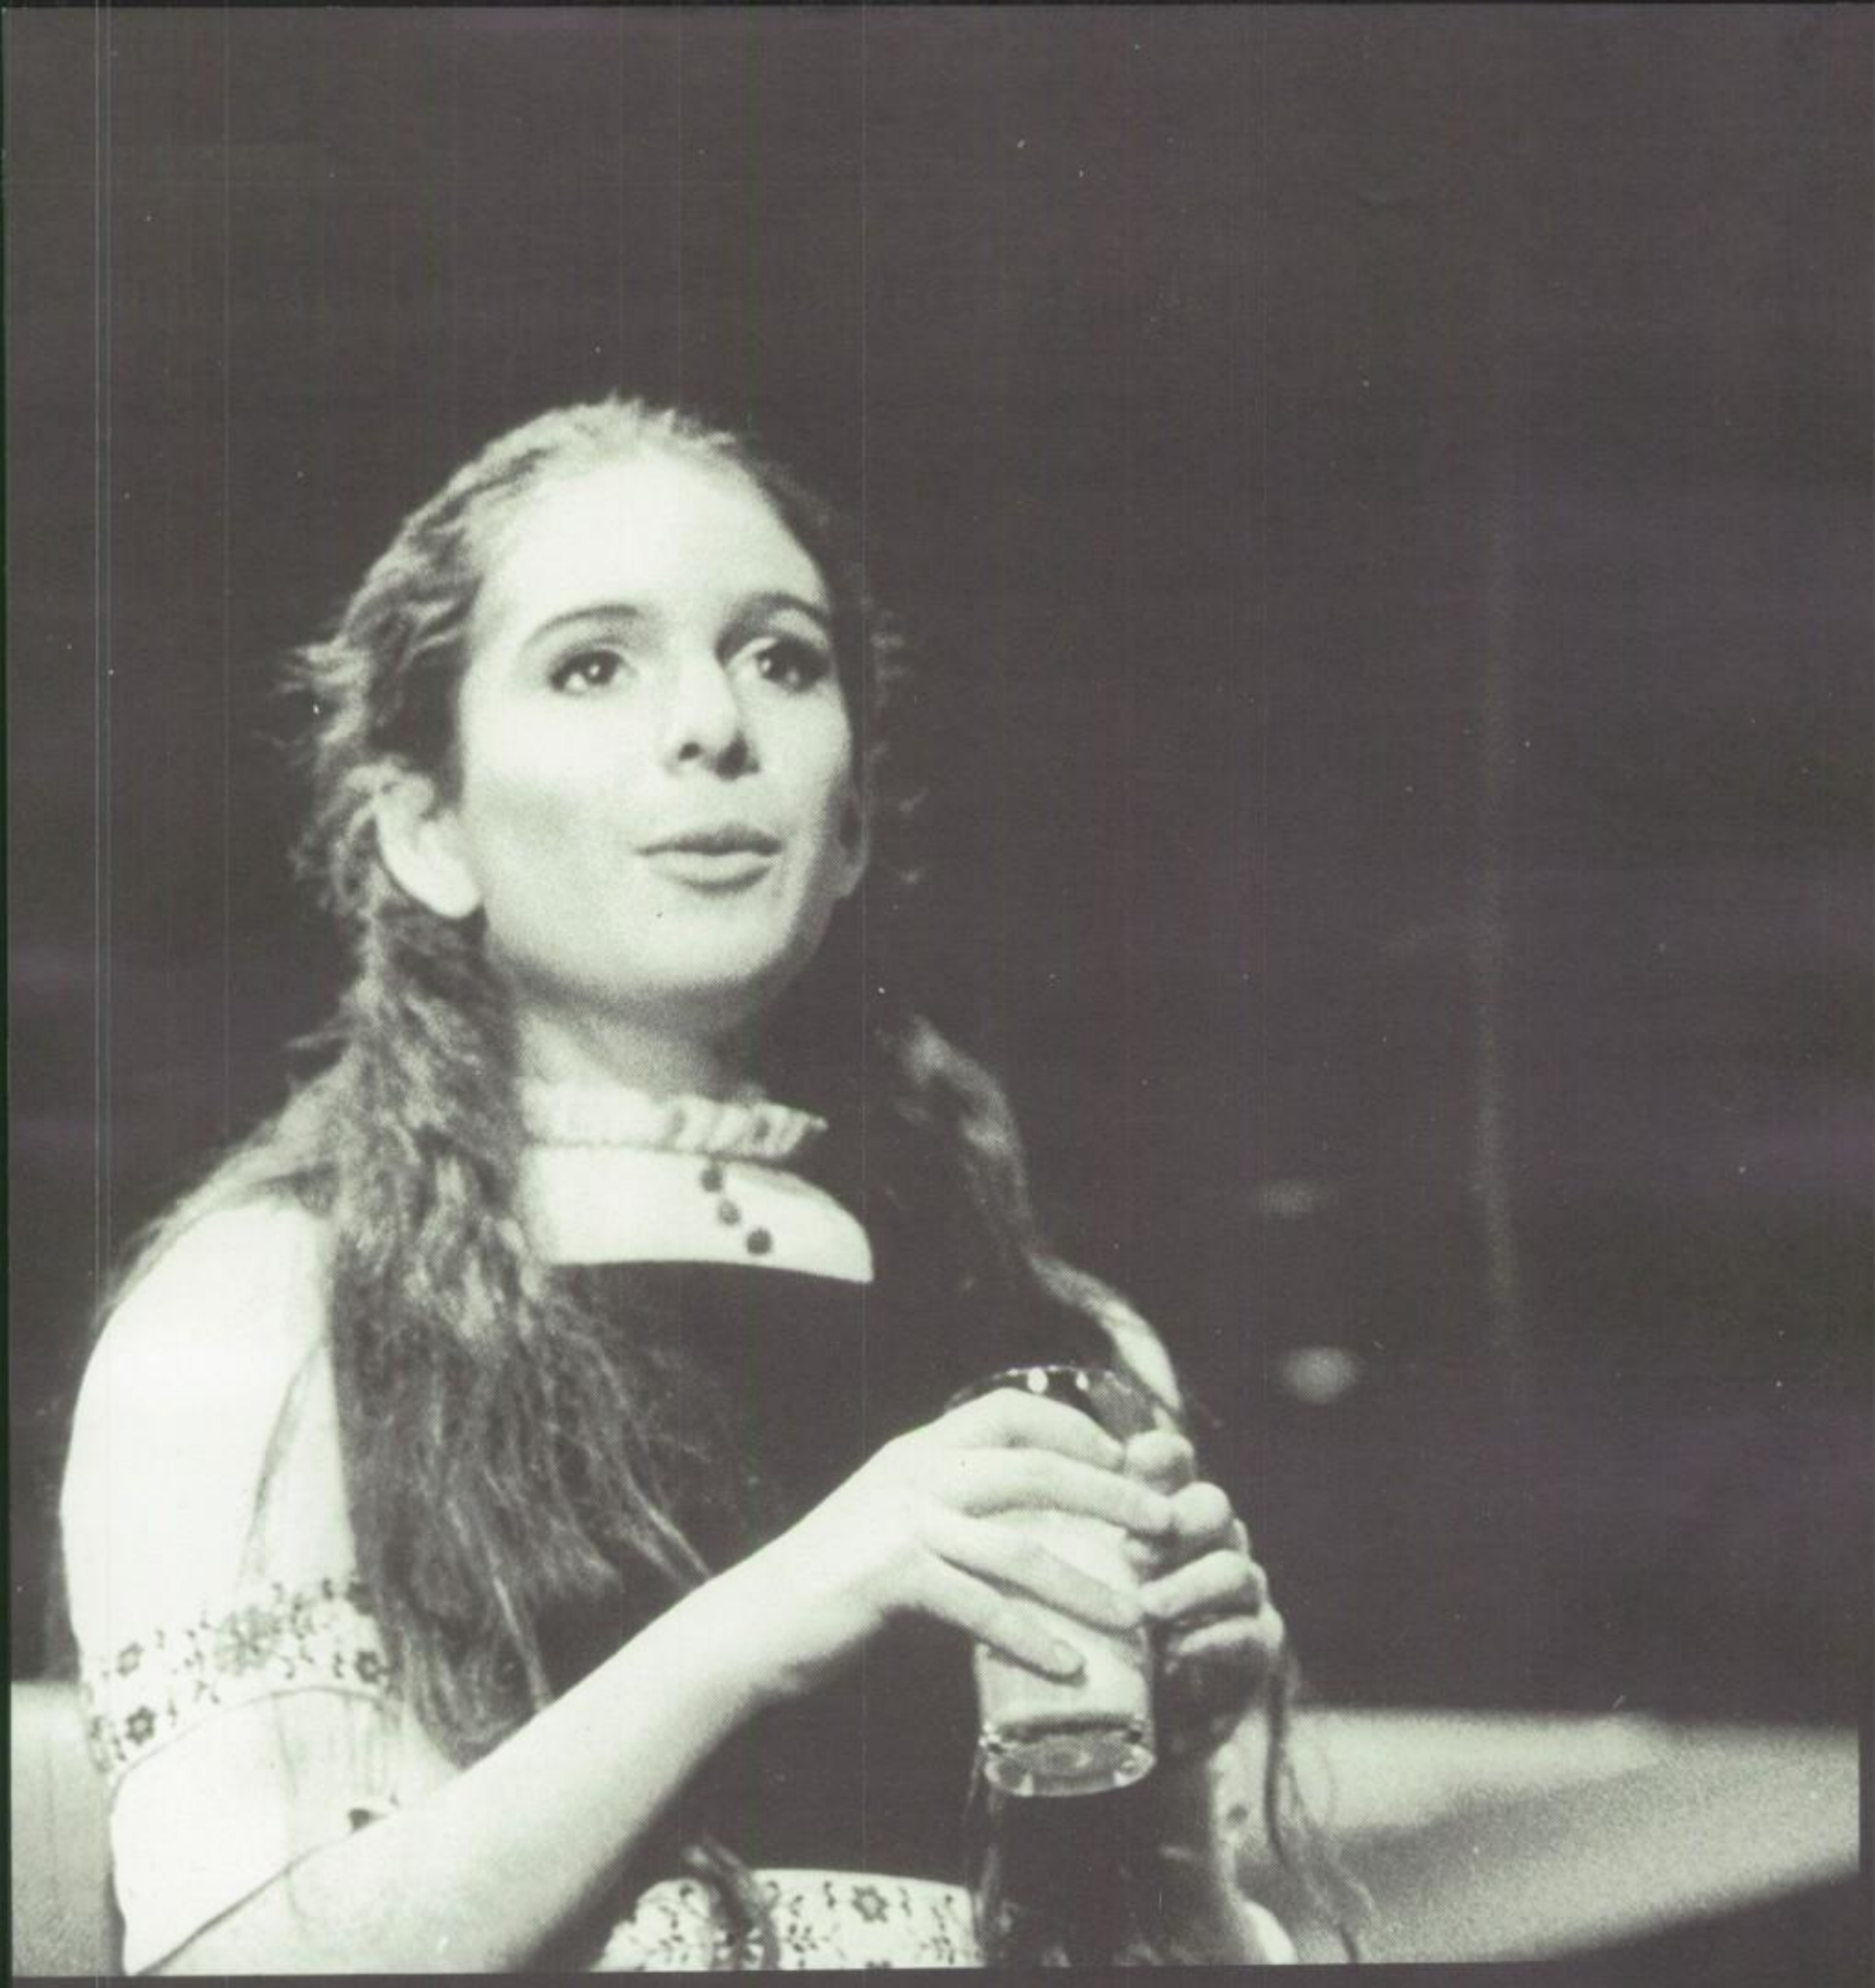
THE DEVIL AND DANIEL WEBSTER

The Devil and Daniel Webster brought to the stage a historical New England yarn. It concerns the efforts of the great orator, Daniel Webster, to save the soul of a recently wed New Hampshire man in the Court of the Dead. There are many tense moments, but at the end all is saved including the happiness of the newly married couple.

THE SKIN OF OUR TEETH

Thornton Wilder's The Skin of Our Teeth evoked both tears and laughter from the New Çanaan audience. The seriousness of Wilder's commentary on modern society and the wild gaiety of seaside conventioneering represent the play's extremes. The medium is the humorous and poignant portrayal of the Antrobus family life.

Joe Fetus and the Embryos, one of the most unusual sounds to hit the high school in years, made their debut at the Folk Festival in the fall. In a dynamic performance, the group smashed coffee cans, yelled raucously, and generally put on the most explosive show the school has experienced since Mr. Dunn suspended ten kids at once in 1965. The group's second performance came at their own concert in December.



THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

In 1956 The Diary of Anne Frank won a Pulitzer Prize and a Tony Award. The N.C.H.S. production this spring was equally well received by New Canaan audiences.

In wartime Amsterdam two Jewish families seek refuge from the Gestapo in a dingy building loft. For two years they live together in fearful anxiety without sunshine or fresh air. The current of the war seems to favor the Allies, but the refugees are finally discovered and sent to the atrocities of a Nazi concentration camp.

JUNIORS

JUNIOR CLASS

The class of '71 entered the school year with the attitude "What good is money if it doesn't have a beneficial purpose?" So after a successful St. Mark's dance that filled their treasury, the Juniors looked and found things to do with their money. One was adopt a child through the Save the Children Federation. Also, before Christmas they sponsored the canned food drive to collect food for Southfield Village, a slum area in Stamford. In addition they were responsible for supplying teachers and students with their daily New York Times.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The class of '72 began this year with many set goals and purposes. The reorganization of the class was the first goal; the main part of this established a two-fund treasury, one for charity and the other for class use. Aside from assorted bake sales, the class's first event was a Folk Festival in which local musicians displayed their talents. The next event was "Deck the Halls", a spirited Christmas dance. As it has displayed, the class has an enthusiastic and eventful year.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshman Class started off the year by winnning the P.F.A. Membership Drive, which put some money in their treasury. They followed up with money-making projects, including bake sales, one in particular for the Bleacher Fund, and a dance in the spring.

For the new Fall Sports Week this year, the class of '73 set up a float in the lobby that won them second prize. What a profitable way to start off freshman year!

FOOTBALL

Across Boyle Stadium, dejected Stamford fans pulled down a sign proclaiming, "Sorry about that 24th game, New Canaan." The Rams had done it again, winning the Fairfield County Interscholastic Athletic Conference championship game. Not only were the undefeated Rams county champions for the second year in a row, but they were also awarded the S. Polk Waskowitz trophy which officially recognized the team as first in the state. Five members of the team were chosen for both the FCIAC All-County Football team and the All-State Team: on offense—Lem James, Bob Kircher, Rocco DiMuzio, Pat Sikorski, and Pete Demmerle. In addition, members named to the All-County Team were: on offense—Rick Horton; on defense—Tom Eberhart; on second team defense—Ray Brown; and Phil Parker and Dick Holway received honorable mention. Coach Sikorski was honored by the New York Daily News which named him a 1969 News All Star Football Coach.

SOCCER

The New Canaan soccer team did well this year, with a 5-3-1 record. The team was led by senior captains John Valentine and Glen St. Clair. Unfortunately, the team was stricken by three accidents which kept out four valuable players. Ironically, the team performed their best in the three losses, two to Staples and one to McMahon (both championship teams). Next year, the Rams can look forward to a good season, with returning junior standouts Jim Fox, Jon Bates, and Howard Curtis.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's dedicated runners showed the team strength necessary for cross country competition. Finishing with a record of 8 wins and 4 losses, the team placed ninth in the state. The captain and only senior on the team was Ole Andersson, who not only set a new record for the home course by running 2.9 miles in 15.05 minutes but also was named to the FCIAC All-County Team.

Both girls' field hockey teams had an extremely successful season despite hard competition and, on a few occasions, bitter cold. The Varsity's record was 10 wins and one loss, to Staples. Junior Varsity ended their season victoriously with a record of no losses, 9 wins, and 2 ties. Staples, an old rival, proved to be the fiercest competition for both teams. Kim Barker was the star of the Varsity team, scoring 20 goals for the season; Karen Barker, Bea James, and Pat Swerz scored a good share for the forward line. Junior Varsity ended its chilly season with a total of 25 goals, including 2 goals by the defense, Lori Russel and Ellen Skeele.

CHEERLEADING

As colorful as their new uniforms, this year's cheerleading squad, led by Mimi Rabe, created enthusiasm during the games as well as at school. Successful pep rallies, a championship football team, creative new cheers, and an abundance of pep made this year's squad one of the most spirited ever.

Led by captain Sheryl Flaschen and co-captain Kim Overholt, this year's volleyball team showed great promise. Hard work yielded victories over Brian McMahon, Norwalk, Sacred Heart, and Rippowam. Roger Ludlowe provided a challenge for the team and inspired a great competitive spirit. Although the girls did not do as well as they had hoped, finishing with a record of 5 wins and 6 losses, they worked well together. In the final standings, New Canaan placed third in the county. The volleyball team will lose five seniors but will undoubtedly improve with age and experience.

FENCING

The N.C.H.S. fencing team, one of the five girls' high school fencing teams in the state, participated in three meets and was represented at the championships. Due to the team's growing strength, the scores showed improvement over former years. The fencers were fairly equal both in ability and in the desire for the mental and physical exercise demanded by fencing. Hoping for a coach in the future, some girls started traveling to Roger Ludlowe High School for instruction. The continuation of these lessons through the summer will greatly contribute to next year's team which already has a strong core.

BASKETBALL

After a high school has experienced the thrills of owning a state championship football team, it takes it a little while to settle back to normal. This, more than any other reason explains the disappointment of this year's basketball team.

The outlook for next year appears to be much brighter even though Rick Horton, Lem James, John Valentine, Doug Barrett, Harvey Trusty, Rocco Dimuzio, and Bob Kircher will all graduate. Returning will be a strong corps of juniors and a J. V. team which posted a 17-1 record in contrast to the Varsity's 3-15. These players include juniors Howard Curtis, Jack Zucco, Nick Kinsley, Walt Flippin, Peter Demerle, Burt Peterson, Jon Bates, and Rick Spadaccini; Sophomores, John Bower, Dick Holtzman; and freshman Brian Sikorski.

Even though the rest of the county teams will be on the upswing, New Canaan should be improved enough to be in contention next year for post-season tournaments.

HOCKEY

This year's hockey team was one of the bright spots in the winter sports season. Chip Horgan ended up as high scorer with twenty-eight points, while Gary Brown finished a close second with twenty-five. Captain Dick Holway, Doug Jensen, and Mike Kenworthy stood out on defense, while Gary DeAsi played exceptionally well at goalie with six shutouts, a school record.

One disappointing event of the year that later turned into a spectacular, was an initial 2-1 loss to West Haven in the regular season which was followed by a 2-1 rebuttal for the Rams, in the state semi-finals. This qualified the team to play Hamden in the state finals. The other disappointing game was a 2-0 loss to Staples while the team was shorthanded seven of twelve regular players.

The team finished first in the county with only four goals scored against them and forty-two goals scored for them.

Next year's team prospects look good with Gary Brown, Chip Horgan and Mike Kenworthy returning as well as the promising third line of Dave Tharp, Ham Wright, and Mark Finlay. This year's fine J.V. team should also contribute to next year's effort.

In 1970, the New Canaan High School wrestling team had for the first time a full ten-meet inter-county schedule. Although it did not have an impressive record, this year's team did spark the enthusiasm which will lead to future county championships. Because of lack of space in our present building, the team was forced to practice at the Y.M.C.A. at 5:30 in the evening. Despite these difficulties, the new sport fielded a team of spirit young men, who will form the core of next year's team.

Wrestling, the oldest sport known to man, is a universal athletic event. Because wrestling is divided into many different weight classes, no person will be wrestling an opponent of greater physical stature. It is this universality which should make wrestling the needed outlet for those who do not have the size for football or basketball yet feel athletically inclined. Next year, we hope to see more competition for starting positions, more team depth, and more school-wide interest.

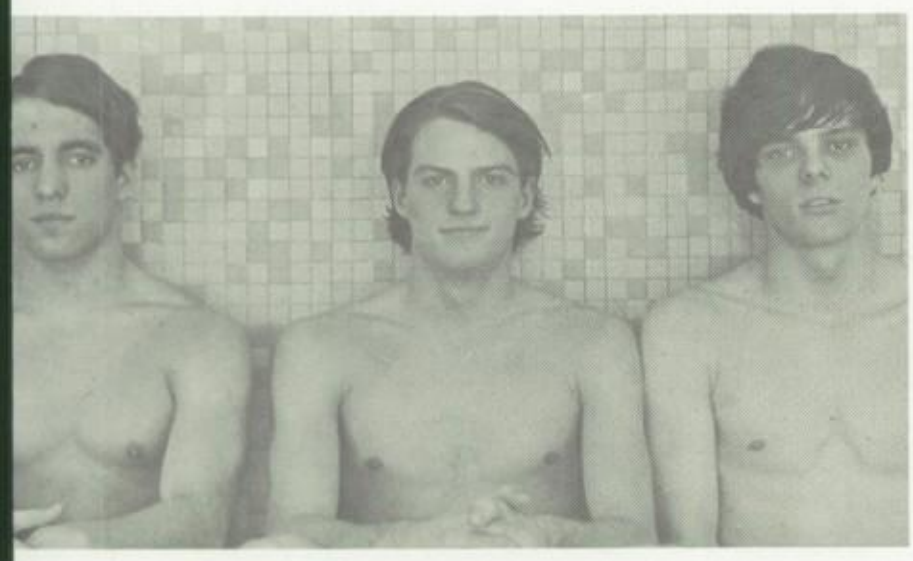
SWIMMING



Captains Elly, Rick, and Roger

Despite the loss of many fine swimmers from last year's State Championship squad, Coach Lock's Rams succeeded in winning the silver second-place trophy in this year's state meet. Tri-captains Elly King, Roger Ferris, and Rick Bouffard led a well-balanced team with sophomore Bill Boyle standing out.

Although the Rams were handicapped by limited facilities and practice time, they finshed the season with a 7-4 record. Highlights were their thrilling win over arch-rival Darien and strong second place finishes to league-leading Staples and State Champion William Hall of Hartford.

With the loss of only two swimmers from this year's team, the outlook for the 1971 squad is very promising.

TRACK

TRACK VARSITY

Coaches Sikorski, Mosley and Lynch speak very optimistically about the Rams' 1970 team. Although there are many individual talents on the team, the problem will be assemblying this talent into something sound and winning. Bright spots seem to be the weight events, the 100, and 220 as well as the mile and two mile, weaknesses seem to be in the jumping events, but this may be remedied by some of the promising underslassman.

TRACK

GIRLS' TRACK

Last spring, for the first time at N.C.H.S., a girls' track and field team was formed. Coached by Mrs. Gilbert, the team ended the season taking fourth place in the state. This year, with practically the same team returning along with new members, everyone is very enthusiastic. The girls participate in events such as the 50 yard hurdles, long jump, high jump, discus and softball throw, shot put, javelin throw, dashes, and relays.

BOYS' TRACK

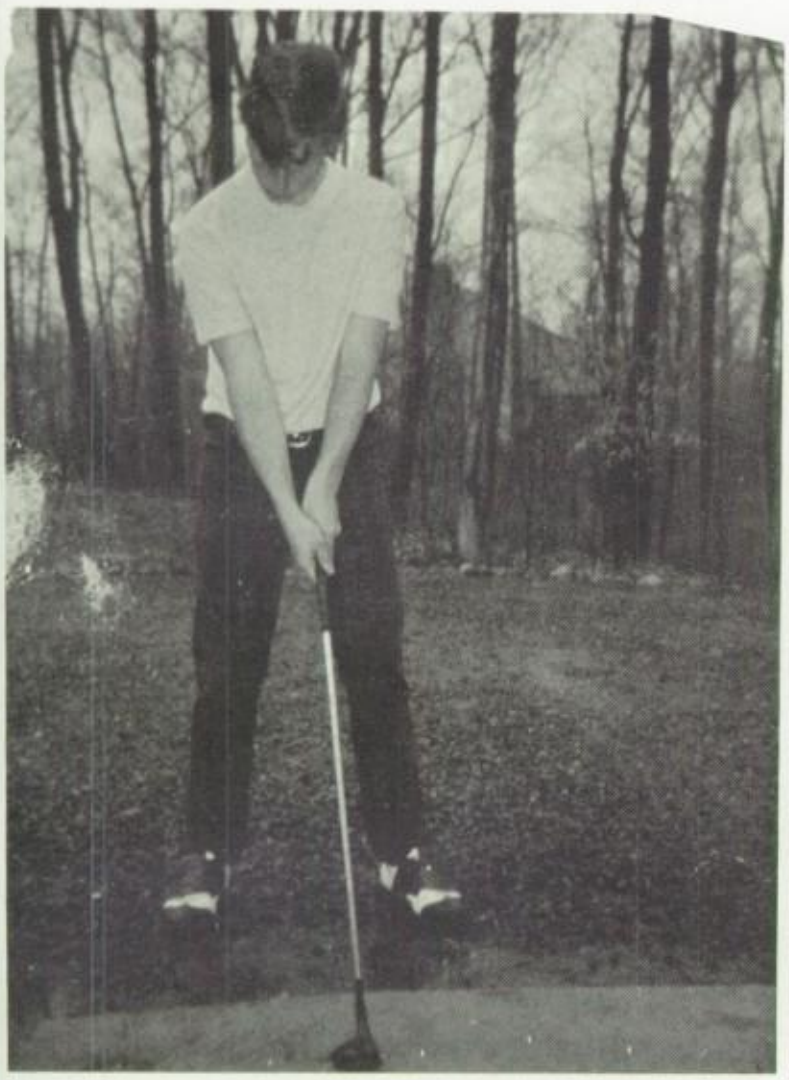
TENNIS

BOYS' TENNIS

The 1970 tennis team seems to be a rebuilding one. Last year, the team lost Terry Dukes, Randy Adams, and Greg Lewis, who during their four-year careers at New Canaan helped win for the school three state championships.

This year the team will be captained by junior Jon Bates, and his support will come primarily from other juniors as well as some promising sophomores and freshmen. In addition to this group of boys which includes juniors Duncan Miller, Rick Salmon, Mike Kenworthy; sophomores Allan Jay and Chase Carey, and freshman Phil Dukes, the team will be strengthened by improved juniors Jim Kraus and Pete Harlow. Though it is a young team, it is good one, with a lot of potential, and so the outlook for the future is bright.



GOLF

New Canaan's 1970 golf team promises to be a good one with almost all of last year's team returning. This year's squad is hopeful to fare better than 69's team which had a winning season and ranked third in F.C.I.A.C. competition. Returning are seniors Jeff Watt and Jim Vitti, and juniors Jack Zucco and Lindsay Valk. Other players who may see varsity action are John Madigan, Dave Tharp, Gary Brown, Bruce Hightower, and Karl Kapusta. This year's team hopes to place high in state competition.

BOYS' BASEBALL

With a strong crew returning, Coach Kieth MacBain's 1970 Baseball Team should be in for a fine year. Captained by Doug Barrett, the Rams boast fine pitching as well as adequate fielding. Seniors Rick Horton, Al LeBlanc, and John Valentine should also be a great asset in keeping the team together with much drive and hustle, something that is so important and has brought so many other New Canaan teams up the long road to victory.

VARSITY BASEBALL
